- Unique lateral three bedroom apartment
- Seven stone balconies
- Overlooking Horseguards and the London Eye
- One of Westminster's most iconic buildings
- 24 hour portorage

A unique lateral three bedroom apartment on the second floor of this elegant building, with seven individual stone balconies and floor to ceiling French windows, overlooking Horseguards and the London Eye.

Tucked away on one of the most prestigious streets in Westminster, Whitehall Court is fabulously positioned. The apartments were built in mid 1880s, AND its grand stature, white Portland stone and highly desirable location have made it one of Westminster's most iconic buildings.

It further features an impressive lobby with 24 portorage, lift to all floors and a connected to the Royal Horseguards Hotel and the Farmers Club.

Transport links include Embankment tube station (Northern, Bakerloo, Circle, District lines), and two mainline stations (Charing Cross, Waterloo). The West End is easily accessible as are the Royal Festival Hall on the South bank.
