This modern two bedroom apartment in Centurion Building, Chelsea Bridge Wharf benefits from a substantial private terrace positioned next to the River Thames, and is available to rent through Prime London.

Featuring a generous terrace, 'comfort cooling,' and ample storage, the open-plan kitchen also seamlessly blends into a splendid living area with floor to ceiling windows.

Nestled just moments away from Sloane Square, the charming Chelsea Bridge Wharf development graces the banks of the River Thames, adjacent to Chelsea Bridge and the expansive Battersea Park. This iconic development stands out for its unparalleled peace and tranquility in the heart of prime central London. At its core, the award-winning water gardens create a serene oasis amidst the striking glass buildings that envelop them.

The development not only presents splendid views but also provides amenities such as a 24-hour concierge, spacious terraces, comfort cooling and heating, and optional underground parking. Noteworthy is its proximity to the new northern line extension, facilitating easy access to the city and the West End within just five stops.
