This rare three bedroom apartment, located in the prestigious and highly desirable The Whiteley development, is available for lease through Prime London.

This spectacular residence spans across 3,884 sq ft (361 sqm) of living space, and offers a truly unique opportunity to lease one of London's finest lateral apartments. Generously proportioned, the home features soaring 4.2m ceilings and floor to ceiling windows in all principal rooms, flooding the space with natural light and enhancing its sense of volume and elegance.

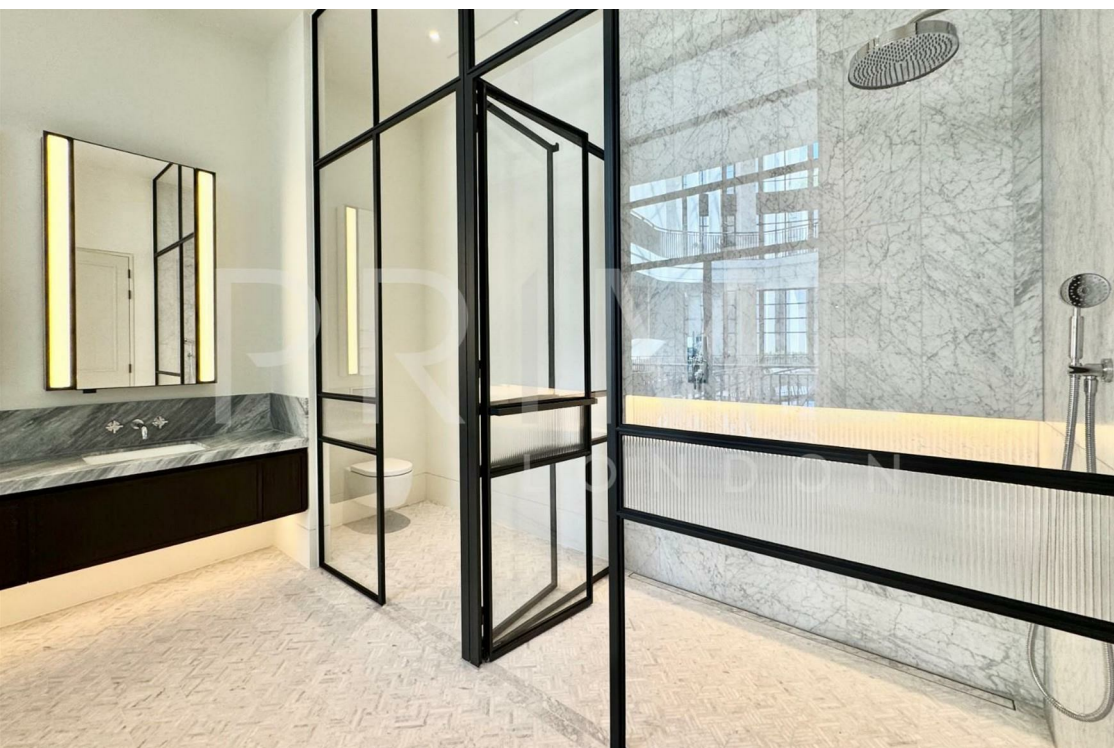

The showstopping reception space, accessed via striking Crittall style doors, seamlessly integrates dining, kitchen and entertaining areas, with full height glazing opening onto a vast private terrace and two curved balconies. The bespoke kitchen is finished to the highest standard, complete with Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances, pale oak cabinetry and refined marble worktops and splashbacks.

The master bedroom suite is a private sanctuary, boasting dual full-height wardrobes, a spacious en-suite bathroom, and an additional walk-in dressing room. Two further generous bedrooms each benefit from luxurious en-suites and bespoke fitted wardrobes. A sizeable study, utility room and guest WC complement the layout.

Once home to one of London's most prestigious department stores, The Whiteley has been masterfully reimagined into a collection of 139 private residences, complemented by the world-renowned Six Senses hotel and spa, residents-only gardens and a host of lifestyle amenities.
